

FAQ: Sign Language Interpreter Educational License – Repealed as of January 1, 2026

ISSUED ON SEPTEMBER 30, 2025

OVERVIEW & BACKGROUND

During the 2025 Legislative Session, SB 950 (2025) was passed and signed into law by the Governor on May 28, 2025. The new law repeals the sign language interpreter (SLI) educational license, effective January 1, 2026. However, any SLI educational license issued between June 8, 2024, and December 31, 2025, will remain valid through January 1, 2029, allowing SLI educational license holders three additional years to practice.

Beginning January 1, 2026, the SLI educational license will no longer be issued or renewed due to SB 950 (2025), which repeals this license type.

The Health Licensing Office (HLO) has provided a FAQ to help understand how the current law aligns with SB 950 (2025).

PERMANENT BOARD SLI EDUCATIONAL LICENSE

Q1: When did HLO begin issuing permanent¹ Board of Sign Language Interpreters (Board) SLI educational licenses?

A: HLO began issuing permanent Board SLI educational licenses on June 8, 2024.

¹ To obtain a permanent Board SLI educational license a person had to apply and provide all required information, meet all qualifications, and pay application and license fees.

Q2: When will HLO stop issuing permanent Board SLI educational licenses?

A: HLO will stop issuing permanent Board SLI educational licenses on December 31, 2025.

Q3: Does my permanent Board SLI educational license qualify me for the extension ending January 1, 2029?

A: Yes. Your permanent Board SLI educational license will automatically be extended until January 1, 2029.

Q4: Do I have to renew my permanent Board SLI educational license before December 31, 2025, to have my permanent Board SLI educational license extended until January 1, 2029?

A: No. You do not have to renew your permanent Board SLI educational license to have it extended until January 1, 2029.

Q5: Does my permanent Board SLI educational license need to be active on January 1, 2026, to have my permanent Board SLI educational license extended until January 1, 2029?

A: No. Your permanent Board SLI educational license doesn't have to be active on January 1, 2026, to be extended until January 1, 2029.

Q6: Can I renew my permanent Board SLI educational license after December 31, 2025?

A: No. Starting January 1, 2026, the permanent Board SLI educational license can no longer be renewed due to SB 950 (2025) repealing the SLI educational license.

Q7: Can I obtain a permanent Board SLI educational license after December 31, 2025?

A: No. Starting January 1, 2026, permanent Board SLI educational licenses will no longer be issued due to SB 950 (2025) repealing the SLI educational license.

Q8: If I was issued a permanent Board SLI educational license between June 8, 2024, and December 31, 2025, where can I provide sign language interpretation services as of January 1, 2026?

A: From January 1, 2026, to January 1, 2029, you can provide services in settings that the Board authorizes without needing extra licenses. The Board will set the specific rules related to settings by January 1, 2026.

Q9: What if I was NOT issued a permanent² Board SLI educational license between June 8, 2024, and December 31, 2025 — do I need another license to provide sign language interpretation services in K-12 education setting?

A: Yes. If you do not obtain a permanent Board SLI educational license before January 1, 2026, you will need one of the SLI licenses available on January 1, 2026, or fall under an exemption to licensure, in order to provide sign language interpretation services.

A person can apply for a permanent Board SLI supervisory, generalist or provisional license at any time before or after January 1, 2026.

Starting January 1, 2026, a person can apply for the permanent Board SLI-in-training license.

Q10: If I'm providing sign language interpretation services in K-12 schools, do I have to follow the Oregon Department of Education's rules?
